

Welcome to Book reader application help center.

#. About the application.

This application is an online book library system which downloads the books into pdf format which can be read at any time.

#. Purpose of making the application.

Now days everyone have smartphone for entertainment and different purpose. So making the book reader mobile app the user can read books anytime and anywhere as they please. They don't have to go to specific library or buys books in the bookstore they can just read in bed by just opening the app.

#. Instruction to use the app.

The user can upload books to the online library storage by filling the required data to upload books.

The user can download the online book for the library by just click into the particular book.

The use can read the books by opening the pdf in the external storage of the device.

The Downloaded pdf are stored in the SD-Card / Download directory.